New Business: Operations: A. In discussion about the Sale of Champions: Just the 4 Top Champions must sell: Grand Champion and Reserve Champion 4-H and FFA animals. Chosen out of those 4 will be the Supreme and Reserve Supreme Champion animals. Weight Champions do not have to sell.

B. Turkeys and Rabbits for the sale will stay the same as in Guidebook.

C. Master showmanship will remain the same as in Guidebook. The first showmanship won is the one the Exhibitor must represent in Masters.

above the certificates. No second. Marlene withdrew her motion. It was tabled to investigate to see where the money would come from.

E. Market Rabbits: FFA & 4-H will be split and a Supreme and Reserve Supreme will be added.

F. No Heifer Show/ Beef Replacement Class. Feeder Class will be added 499 to 900 lbs. Can not sell and must be entered as such and will not be moved up to market class if they go over the weight. Rate of Gains Contest was discussed at length. Diana moved that we do not do a rate of gains contest. Seconded by Sheri. Motion passed.

G. Sheep being shown in a halter must be shown in a show halter for safety issues. No rope halters/leashes.

H. Parents and leaders may assist an exhibitor in fitting their animal if the exhibitor is present and standing there assisting.

Governance: Review of the By-Laws.

Barn Chairs: Some species still do not have a Barn Chair. Must apply immediately. Following apps received:

Beef Breeding & Market: Dena Daluz

Sheep Breeding & Market: Diana Muller, Kenny Hoogendoorn, Brian Wilmshurst

Goats Boer/Market: Jared & Erin Hohenwater

Dairy Cattle: Ted & Dorothy Langum

Swine Breeding & Market: Frank Morelos

An internship was discussed. There is a possibility of getting an intern to assist.

By-Laws: Changes to be made and awards to be put in book.

A budget needs to be made for the awards.

Having no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 8:15 p.m.

Respectively Submitted,
